Dear Dafe,

Under Employment Intermediaries legislation, we are required to carry out due diligence checks on worker payments.

Xpertise Recruitment has a consultancy services contract with BOAS+ Limited for provision of the services of Erho Adjara. Records at Companies House show that Erho Adjara is not a director of BOAS+ Limited. Could you please therefore complete and return the attached payment status declaration.

Yours sincerely,

RICHARD HARRISON DIRECTOR

LIMITED COMPANY PAYMENT STATUS DECLARATION
(Erho Adjara)

Employment Intermediaries legislation requires Xpertise Recruitment Ltd (Xpertise) carry out due diligence checks on worker payments.

Xpertise can only engage with temporary workers who are paid;

- As a worker / employee of an onshore UK limited / umbrella company OR
- Operating as a director / shareholder of a limited company (PSC).

Intermediary responsibility to prevent "false self-employment" also requires that Xpertise obtain confirmation that no party in the supply chain pays workers under direction, supervision or control as self-employed workers.

Xpertise therefore require confirmation relating to how worker payments are processed. Xpertise are not able to process any payments without receipt of this document signed by a director of the company. By signing this declaration the limited company confirm that in its provision of contractor services NO individuals supplied to provide services to Xpertise are paid on a self-employed basis. Once the declaration is signed it is the responsibility of the limited company to notify Xpertise of any changes to worker payment status.

The limited company declare that Agency worker (Erho Adjara) who is paid through the intermediary is either (please confirm as appropriate).

An employee of the limited company engaged on a contract of employment, or a worker engaged on a contract for services, and that Tax and National Insurance contributions are made on the Agency Workers behalf in relation to the monies paid by Xpertise . YES / NO

OR

A director and / or shareholder of the company receiving remuneration by means of a salary and / or dividends from company profits and accounting for tax and National insurance contributions as applicable. YES / NO

The limited company agree to indemnify Xpertise from any loss arising from an HMRC investigation and / or demand In the event that this declaration is found to be false.

We, the undersigned have read, understood and agree to be bound by this declaration.
